

We Keep Our Eyes on Him

We dare not trust in wealth or fame, in perfect health or family name.
We only look to Christ above, He is our Rock, our Hope, our Love.

We do not seek for men's applause or blindly chase an earthly cause.
We choose each day to do God's will, He always brings the greatest thrill.

We don't buy in to hype and glitz, or talking heads or clever wits.
We test the things we see and hear through God's own Word,
that's true and clear.

We walk by faith and follow Christ, for Him a living sacrifice.
He makes the difference every day. He is the Life, the Truth, the Way.

We find Christ brings a perfect peace, in Him the wonders never cease.
With Holy Hands that bear a scar He reaches down to where we are.

We know He works things for our good,
He placed us in our neighborhood.
He has a great and perfect plan to save the soul of every man.

We sing His songs of joyful praise when others leave, He always stays.
He helps us press toward the goal, He is the captain of our soul.

We need His kind and loving care, He travels with us everywhere.
He guides our steps to what is right, He turns our darkness into light.

We seek to keep our eyes on Him
when things are great or when they're grim.
He is the coach, He calls the play. He is the potter, we're the clay.

Jim Lake
Friend

HENRY HILDEBRANDT

1942 – 2023

Henry was predeceased by his parents, Abram & Tina Hildebrandt; his four siblings, Ike Hildebrandt, Kathy (Jake) Dyck, Pete Hildebrandt, and Molly (John) Koop.

Henry leaves to mourn his passing his devoted wife, Caroll Hildebrandt; his son, Derin Hildebrandt (Ashley Hein), and grandchildren, Alissa (Doug Barr), Amy (Aaron Hepting), Matthew Hildebrandt, and Preston Hildebrandt; his step- grandchildren, Avairy Hein and Tucker Hein; his daughter, Denise (Reg Block), and their children, Clarke Block (Hannah), Juliana Block, and Gabrielle Block; Henry's first great-grandchild, Lydia Hepting, was born December 2022. He is also survived by his sisters, Anne (Bill) Wall, Helen (Ron) Wegner, Betsy (Wally) Weiser, and Sally Friesen; and by his sister-in-law, Helen Hildebrandt.

Henry Hildebrandt was born in Swift Current, SK on October 31, 1942 to Abram & Tina Hildebrandt. Henry was the seventh born of nine children, and the youngest son. He spent his entire life on the Hildebrandt homestead, which has now been in the family for 106 years.

Henry loved a good pun, dessert after every meal (including breakfast if donuts were available), a quick nap in his recliner, watching the news, and was always fascinated by learning. He stretched himself by studying investments, and was consistently up on new farming practices. He was determined to continue farming as long as he could, and had recently told Caroll that he hoped to "die with his boots on."

On Saturday, April 15, he had a traumatic accident working on the farm and was called to meet his Saviour in the early morning of Sunday, April 16, 2023. While we cannot fathom that he is gone, we are assured that he is in his heavenly home, worshipping our Lord Jesus Christ face to face, and we look forward to reuniting with him there someday.

In Loving Memory of

HENRY HILDEBRANDT

CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Saturday, April 22, 2023 at 3:00 pm
Trailview Alliance Church, Swift Current, SK

ORDER OF SERVICE

PROCESSIONAL – "Jesus is Coming," Exodus

SCRIPTURE READING – 1 John 1: 5 – 10, Reg Block

MUSICAL TRIBUTE – "Because He Lives," Henry's family

HYMN – "It is Well," Matthew Hildebrandt and Amy Hepting

EULOGY & TRIBUTES – Derin Hildebrandt and Denise Block

GRANDCHILDREN'S TRIBUTE

MESSAGE – Rev. Milton Friesen

SPECIAL MUSIC – "Reach One More for Jesus,"

Denise Block accompanied by Alissa Barr

BENEDICTION – Rev. Milton Friesen

RECESSIONAL – "Stepping on the Clouds," Exodus

USHERS – John & Ruth Kehler and Ben & Kathy Kroeker

PALLBEARERS – Derin Hildebrandt, Reg Block and Grandchildren

PRIVATE INTERMENT – Preceded the Funeral Service
Hildebrandt Heritage Cemetery, Wymark District, SK

LUNCHEON – Immediately following the service in the gym

DONATIONS – Ranger Lake Bible Camp & the Salvation Army

ARRANGEMENTS – Swift Current Funeral Home