

Called Away Suddenly

I was called away suddenly
Because God knocked at my door
I had avoided His previous taps
But I could ignore Him no more.

He was very insistent
That I go with Him right away
He took me by the hand
There was little I could say.

For God has the right timing
He knows what is best
He knows when our work is done
And when it's time to rest.

I was called away suddenly
Didn't have time to say goodbye
But I want you to know I'm with God
In His mansion in the sky.

COLTON KOOP
1992 ~ 2018

Colton Koop, age 26, passed away on Friday, November 16, 2018 in Swift Current, SK. Colton Richard Koop was born October 7, 1992 to Randy & Alice Koop at the Swift Current Union Hospital, the youngest brother to Ashley and Justin. Determined to do things his own way, he went from crawling to running and never stopped moving. From a young age, Colton loved animals and they loved him. He had a chicken that would come to him specifically to be picked up and pet, it broke his heart to see any animal die or suffer. Colton received his education at Waldeck Elementary School, O.M. Irwin Middle School, and the Swift Current Comprehensive High School. He worked in the oil patch, did tree cutting with his dad and brother, carpentry, crop dusting, and was working at Pumpjack. A friend to many, Colton loved to bring people joy and make them smile, better yet if he could make them laugh with his wicked sense of humor. He loved fishing, camping at the Saskatchewan Landing — especially in the van he commandeered from his dad — cooking, baking, animals, spending time with family and friends, trucks, drag racing, and doing burnouts. Colton especially loved his two dogs, Chuck and Nora. Colton was a kind-hearted young man with a gentle soul, a tough exterior, and a quick smile. He is gone too soon and will be missed and remembered by all who loved him. Colton is survived by his parents, Randy & Alice Koop; his siblings, Justin Koop and Ashley (Cody) Lewis; his nieces, Emmy and Molly Lewis; his grandparents, Molly Koop and Tina Wiebe; his uncles, aunts, and cousins; and by his many friends. Colton was predeceased by his grandparents, John Koop and Jake Wiebe; and by his uncle, Leonard Wiebe.
