

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew form out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.

For tho' from out our bourne of time and place,
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face,
When I have crossed the bar.

Joyce Bragg
1930 ~ 2019

Joyce Bragg (nee Camphaug), was born in Fosterton, SK, on November 27, 1930 & took her schooling in Pennant, Cabri & Swift Current. After attending Beatty Collegiate she began her career at the Dominion Research Station (Experimental Farm) in Swift Current doing bookkeeping and clerical work. She also worked for various private companies and government agencies. Joyce was predeceased by her parents, Sigrid & Albert; her brothers, Orville, Roy, and Lawrence; a sister, Bernice; a brother-in-law, Guy Nelson; and by a sister-in-law, Lillian (Orville). She is survived by her children, Tammie (Rick) Gamble, Trudee (Terry) Lacher, Tracy (Dan) Sawatzky, and Tyler (Leah) Bragg; several grandchildren; one great-grandchild; as well as by numerous nieces and nephews. Mom loved sewing clothes for her kids, often dressing the girls alike. She made many costumes for her kids and grandkids for baton and parades. She especially looked forward to coming up with annual Halloween costumes, most of which were very memorable! Crafting was one of her favorite past times. She had an idea and use for anything to be made into something new. A popular craft project mom worked on every year, was creating beautiful vintage tree skirts for Christmas. In Mom's active years, she loved going to dances with friends all around the Swift Current area. Many times, these dances were a part of a local rodeo and sports days. She was a member of the Goodtime Dance Club for many years, which included decorating for all of the monthly themed dances. On Saturday morning you could find mom searching through garage sale merchandise, looking for treasures. She collected spoons, thimbles, crystals, bells and many other treasures. Our family would like to thank the staff at the Cypress Regional Hospital in Swift Current for their care and respect given to our mom.
