

Madeline Yvonne (McLeod) Wood-Eby, age 94, wife of former MLA Everett (E.I.) Wood, and later Mr. Lee Eby, passed away peacefully on July 12, 2019 at the Devonshire Care Centre, Edmonton, Alberta.

Yvonne was born October 17, 1924 to Jack & Vera McLeod in North Battleford. She lived in Saskatchewan and Alberta in her youth, settling in Edmonton. Yvonne received her Bible School diploma from the Eston Bible School, and a Bachelor of Religious Education degree from the Canadian Bible College in Regina.

Yvonne was active in the Pentecostal church her whole life in a variety of ministries. She served as a church organist, a Sunday school teacher, and on the church board. Except for a few years in Regina, Yvonne called Swift Current her home from 1955 to 2010, when she returned to Edmonton to be nearer to family.

Yvonne was predeceased by her first husband, Everett Wood; her second husband, Lee Eby; and by her brother, Ken McLeod.

Yvonne is survived by her sister, Norma McLeod; her son, Duncan Wood; and by her grandchildren, Julia, Matthew, Benjamin, and Madeline.

Because He Lives (John 14:19b)

God sent his son, they called him Jesus
He came to love, heal and forgive
He bled and died to buy my pardon
An empty grave is there to prove my Savior lives

Chorus

Because He lives I can face tomorrow
Because He lives All fear is gone
Because I know He holds the future
And life is worth the living just because He lives

How sweet to hold a new born baby
And feel the pride and joy he gives
But greater still the calm assurance
This child can face uncertain days because He lives

And then one day, I'll cross the river
I'll fight life's final war with pain
And then as death gives way to victory
I'll see the lights of glory and I'll know He lives
