

*The gifts that you left us
So precious to hold
Sweet memories forever
They'll never grow old.

Maxine Danroth (nee Johnson) is survived by her husband of 65 years, Doug Danroth; her children, Neil (Pam) Danroth and Kelly (Kirk) Ringrose; her grandchildren, Kristian (Kara) Danroth, Melissa (Jason) Holderbein, Dani (Kyle) Ringrose-Hobbs, Quintin (Carlie) Danroth, Kerry (Danna) Ringrose, and Riley (Lauren) Danroth; her twelve great-grandchildren, Easton, Cooper, and Hudson, Reese, Shea, and Boston, Jude, Iver, Ryder, and Rosalind, Sheriden and Kipton; her siblings, Isabel Cole and Pearl (Dale) Danroth; and by many nieces and nephews.

Maxine was predeceased by her daughter, Terry Danroth; her parents, Ernest & Beulah Johnson; her siblings, Ralph Johnson, Carl (Marie) Johnson, and Doris (Pat Connor & Mel Epp); and by her brother-in-law, Harold Cole.

*They say that, in time,
The heartache will pass
But, we pray
How long?
They say that the tears
In time will be spent
But, dear Lord
How long?
When the winds cease to blow?
And the birds cease to fly?
No, our memories of you
Will never die.
So, the heartache remains
And the tears still flow
Oh, to have you back -
Cause we miss you so.*
