

Our mom, grandma, great-grandma, and great-great-grandma will be forever remembered as our strongest and most treasured family link.

She was a prairie woman at heart who found joy in family, friends, social gatherings, and a country drive.

She loved the warmth of the sun on her face, seeing crops blow in the wind, and picking flowers and berries.

She made the best cookies and pies, and could sew anything. She had the softest lap, the most beautiful skin, the best smile, twinkling eyes, and a heart that held us all.

She laughed, danced, and enjoyed life. She survived because of her positive outlook, and in her memory we aspire to do the same.

Love you, xoxoxo

You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty
because you can't see her,
or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back
on tomorrow and
live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her
and only that she's gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, or you can do what she'd want;
smile, open your eyes, love, and go on.
