

Martin Haidt – Dad/Opa – passed away the morning of Thursday, May 21, 2020. He was surrounded by love and will be greatly missed. His words of wisdom, jokes, and amazing memory of everything that had happened, which he shared through his stories. His honking of his horn, his smile, his pointing of his finger and grin. Showing off his battle scars of bullet holes and his hard work that showed on his hands. The miles his feet put on in over 94 years of his life and the sights and scenes he has lived through are unimaginable. The way the world has changed in those 94 years and how he adjusted to it all. His famous line he always said when he responded to the question of “How are you doing?” he would say “Well, I’m still alive.” We know he was saying it as though he was still physically here with us, but because of the many amazing memories we all have of Dad/Opa, he will always be alive. The last weekend of his life we were able to tell him we got all of his cows out to pasture and the fields had finished being seeded. He will be greatly missed by all that knew him.
