

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, from pain I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call

I turned around and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found the peace on a sunny day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joys.

A family shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full,

I've savored much,

Good family, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.

Lift up your hearts and peace to thee.

God wanted me now:

From pain I'm free.

Mary Wiebe

1934 — 2021

Mary (Thiessen) Wiebe, age 87, went to be with Jesus on Sunday, September 19, 2021 from the Meadows – House 19, Swift Current, SK. Mary was born on February 28, 1934 in the Rosenhof, SK area to Frank & Mary Thiessen — the fifth child in a family of eight. She lived around Swift Current until she was nine and then moved to Vanderhoof, BC, where she did the rest of her growing up years. It is here that she met dad, Isaac Wiebe, and they married on June 28, 1953. They were married for over 56 years and had six children. Mary spent most of her life as a wife, homemaker, and Mom. She kept very busy sewing all of our clothes, gardening, and filling two full-size freezers with vegetables and meat that was butchered on our farm with community help. She enjoyed baking, often annoyed when she'd go get goodies for company and us kids had already eaten them, leaving empty containers. Mary loved people and was extremely social, so preparing fasha was rarely a chore. She also enjoyed spontaneous road trips to spend time with family and friends and would often have to be packed and ready to go within a matter of hours. She loved playing games with anyone interested, and often proudly won. As her children grew up and scattered, Mary & Isaac moved to Swift Current in the fall of 1994. Her precious moments were when one or all of her children would visit her. She was always looking forward to when the next visit would be. Mary will be lovingly missed by her children, Jake (Mary) (Vanderhoof, BC), Agnes (Pete) (Eaglesham, AB), Maria (Bill Schmidt) (Vanderhoof, BC), Trudi (Swift Current, SK), Philip (Carolina) (Davie, FL); her son-in-law, Jake (Swift Current, SK); her daughter-in-law, Cathy (Terrace, BC); her fifteen grandchildren; her nineteen great-grandchildren; her sister, Gertie; and by many nieces and nephews. Mary was predeceased by her husband, Isaac; her son, Dave; her parents, Frank & Mary Thiessen; her seven brothers; and by one sister in infancy. Mom loved her family. She lived loudly and passionately. Her greatest desire was for her loved ones to know Jesus, motivating her relationships with each of them.
