

Andrew William Brown

July 26, 1961 – October 9, 2016

Andrew William Brown, 55, of Chappell, NE, lost his hard-fought battle to cancer Sunday, October 9, 2016, in the University of Colorado Hospital in Aurora, CO.

Andy Bill was born in Ogallala, Nebraska to Alan Charles Brown and Mabel Lorraine (Savage) Brown on July 26, 1961. He grew up in Ogallala and graduated from Ogallala High School in 1979. Andy was a mechanic and short-haul truck driver while the family lived in the panhandle.

Andy met Jan in 1982 and they were married on June 4, 1983. They had four children: Brant, Jennifer, Shelby and Shania. The family moved to Chappell in 1995, and Andy opened Brown's Service, an all-service mechanic shop, in 1996. Andy and Jan bought Premier Auto Parts in Chappell in 2014.

Andy was a devoted outdoorsman and instilled his love for trap shooting, hunting and fishing into his children. Many fond memories were made as the family spent quality time together on the trap range, in the field or on the water.

Andy had a passion for coaching and teaching. He coached his sons' baseball team, daughters' softball team, and was a volunteer umpire in Chappell; started the youth 4-H Trap Shooting Club in Chappell in which all three of his daughters shot; coached trap shooters in Chappell, Ogallala and Sidney and took countless kids to competitions all over Nebraska and Colorado. Andy taught Hunters Education and served on the 4-H Council for many years.

Preceding him in death was his father Alan, and sisters Lorrie Brown and Dyan Richardson.

Survivors include his wife Jan Brown of Chappell; his children: Brant (Dustie) Brown of Big Springs; Jennifer (Ben) Dailey of Sidney; Shelby (Matt) Elliott of Casper, WY; and Shania Brown of York; his mother Mabel Brown of Ogallala; one brother Charles (Tammy) Brown of Morrison, CO; brother-in-law Brett Richardson of San Ramon, CA; five grandchildren: Kerstin Brown; Claire Dailey; and Bridger, Logan, & Krew Elliott.
