Obituary

Mark Eric Bright was peacefully sound asleep when God granted him his wings. He was born on March 26th 1966 in Washington, DC to his loving parents Dorothy Mae Bright and the late Larry Bright Sr.

Mark was a product of DC Public Schools. While in High School he developed a talent and love for playing the Horn in which he continued to do as a hobby. Mark was a true Washingtonian who was a fan of the Washington Redskins, Washington Nationals, and local Go-Go music. You can name any Go-Go song and Mark would grab his Horn and play it note from note. Mark's specialty was outdoor grilling with family and friends no matter what the weather.

In 1999 Mark gave his life to the Lord and joined Shiloh Baptist Church where he was also baptized. In 2000 Mark was joined in holy matrimony to his Wife Yolanda Bright who preceded him in death a few years later. Mark was employed at the Velocity Condominiums for over nine years as a Concierge, a job he did with great pride and honor. Just an all-American loving Guy, there is no doubt that Mark will be truly missed by all who knew him.

Mark is survived by one son Derjuan Morris of Washington, DC, his mother Dorothy Mae Bright and step father Horace Harris of Washington, DC, three brothers John Bright of Waldorf, MD, Larry Bright of Las Vegas, NV, and Theodore Harris of Rockville, MD, Sister in-law Robin Bell Bright of Washington, DC. Mark also leaves to Cherish his Memories a special friend he adored Tracy Ford, eleven nephews and nieces, three aunts Diane Newman, Delores Douglas and Phyllis Newman, one uncle Raymond Newman, and a host of cousin's friends and co-workers.

Missing You Son

It's sometimes hard to know, why some things happen as they do, for so much joy and happiness was centered around you. It seems so hard to comprehend that you're no longer here but all the happy memories will help to keep you near. You're thought about with pride, Son with each mention of your name death cannot change a single thing the love will still remain.

My Brother

As kids, we lived together
We fought, we laughed, we cried.
We did not always show the love,
that we both had inside.
We shared our dreams and plans,
and some secrets too.
All the memories we share,
Is what bonds me now to you.
We grew to find we have a love
that is very strong today.
It's a love shared by our family,
that will never fade away.

The moment you died my heart was torn in two. One side filled with heartache, the other died with you. I often lie awake at night, when the world is fast asleep, and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheeks. Remembering you is easy, I do it every day, but missing you is heartache that never goes away. I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain until the joyous day arrives that we will meet again. You may be gone but never forgotten. I will love you always.
