

The Love Lives On

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Psalm 23

Acknowledgment

The McLeod family would like to thank each and everyone of you for your kind expression of sympathy and love during this difficult time. It is greatly and sincerely appreciated. Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there; perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us that day...Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.

Obituary

Judy Mae McLeod, the daughter of the late Monroe, Sr. and Verdies McLeod was born on February 12, 1955 in Flint, Michigan. She departed this life on Friday, August 16, 2019. Judy was the third child of seven children. She attended D.C. Public Schools and graduated from Murray Margaret Washington Vocational High School. She was baptized at the early age of six years old by the late Rev. Ernest R. Gibson Sr., at First Rising Mount Zion Baptist Church. She drifted away from church but she always found herself going to other churches. She knew that she always belonged in church. When she went back to First Rising, she reunited and joined The Voices of Zion Choir. She always did love to sing. She was a devoted worker until she was disabled and was unable to continue on. She leaves to mourn her sister Julia Johnson of South Carolina; sister Maria Godfrey and brother-in-law Larry Godfrey of North Carolina; brother James McLeod and sister-in-law Toni McLeod of Washington, D.C. and sister in law Diane McLeod of Washington, D.C. She will be reunited in Glory with her late brothers Woodrow McLeod and Monroe McLeod, Jr., sister Bettie Turner, her nephews Eugene Turner and Christopher Tolson, her brother-in-law Emanuel Turner, Sr., her niece Gloria Colbert and her aunt Merdies Grace. She is also survived by nine nephews - Terry Lee Turner, Emanuel "Wee-Wee" Turner, Terrill Turner, Theron Tolson, Jr., Adam Tolson, Daniel Tolson, Larry Godfrey, Monroe McLeod III and Rashad Todd; one niece Tamika Tolson, one aunt Iona Stewart; one niece in law Crystal Turner, 10 great nieces, nine great nephews, one step-great niece Marquetta Washington and one step great nephew DeZavion Coates, her best friends Rosa Burbridge and Loretta Thompson, God-son Darius Thompson and a host of other relatives and friends.
