Celebrating The Life Of Mihan Zandi Shahan

April 11, 1937 -- November 18, 2020

Mihan Zandi Shahan

April 11, 1937 - November 18, 2020

Mihan Zandi Shahan, 83, surrounded by her loved ones, passed from this present life on Wednesday, November 18, 2020.

She was born April 11, 1937 in Tehran, Iran to Esmaeel Zandi and Sakinah Mohajeri. Mihan was the oldest of her two siblings, sister, Mahin Zandi and brother, Peyman Khorasani Amini.

Mihan obtained her B.A. in Biology and began teaching Biology, Geology, and Botany in the Iranian school system. She later retired in 1976. Mihan and her mother (who was then a retired nurse) moved to the United States in 1978, living first in Richmond, Virginia, and later Washington, D.C. Mihan also later married, Eldon Neale Shahan. She remained in the home of their marriage until her death.

All three siblings have stayed very close over the years and have supported each other thru the various trials of life. They remember Mihan's caring for her sibling while her mother worked in Tehran. She also enjoyed hiking (as Peyman calls it) taking long walks in the neighborhood, and especially downtown D.C. Cooking was also one of her favorite things to do and watching old movies and comedies on television.

Left to cherish her memories are her brother, Peyman Khorasani Amini of Washington, DC, and sister, Mahin Zandi, Los Angeles, California; brother-in-law David D. Shahan and his wife Beverly A. Shahan, Martinsburg, West Virginia; as well as a host of neighbors, friends, acquaintances, and members of her support group over the years.

And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God,
and it was imputed unto him for righteousness:
and he was called the Friend of God.

Prayer - Dismissal

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun of happy
