Obituary of Ella F. Davis

Ella F. Davis was born April 20, 1944 in Swainsboro Georgia to The Late Talmage Washington, and Theodosia Wilcher.

Ella F. Davis was married in holy matrimony to L. C. Davis, and from this union were born five children, her family relocated in Washington, DC.

Ella F. Davis worked at Pete Pappas & Sons, and numerous jobs providing for her family. She had a big heart, and enjoyed cooking while she ministered, and took prayer request. She prayed for individuals on the street as well as in her building. Her pride, and joy was her family. She showed unconditional love, and sometimes too much love, but that was who she was. Ella F. Davis desire was that her family would be saved and obtain salvation.

She joined Emmanuel Assembly Church under the late Annie Mae Woods, and served the Lord.

As the church transitioned, she continued to be a faithful member of the Evening Light Apostolic Church under the dynamic leadership of Overseer Darryll D. Jackson. She was dedicated to the ministry.

God blessed her with the gift of song, and she loved to sing, and God's anointing was upon her. She loved to sing, and had a special way of making a song her own. Ella Davis sang songs like: A Confidential God, I believe God, Further on up the Road, Power wonder working power, God specializes was her spiritual anthem. She loved to wear church hats and that was her style.

Ella F. Davis Leaves to cherish her memory, Essie Mae Carlyle, Oraneta Davis, Ruby Thomas, Talmage Washington Jr.

Five children, Lee Carl Davis, Angela Lucas, Alberta Goldring, Rhonda Davis, Emmanuel Davis, and an adopted son Ahmed Davis. Two sons-in-laws, Bruce Lucas, Emmerson Goldring Sr. She leaves a host of grandchildren, and great grand children among other relatives, and friends.

The Hat Lady

She struts her stuff,

Like a beautifully plumed bird,

Her head adorned and sparkling things

It's tipped to the side

And dipped over one eye

As she peers out from under
At many admirers

She knows she's Mrs. Lady

I want to be a hat lady one day....

When I grow up.

Until we mee again

We will think about you always

We talk about you still

You will never be forgotten

And you never will

We hold you close

With our hearts

And there you will remain

To walk and to guide us

Through our lives

God Bless You Ma, Take Your Rest In The Lord! You Will Be Missed By Your Family, Your Church, and Friends

I thought of you today but that was nothing new

I thought of you yesterday
And will tomorrow

I think of you in silence
And make no outward show
For what it meant
To lose you
Only

Remembering you is easy
I do it everyday
It's the heart ache of losing you
That will never go away

A Message With Love

I'm going to miss my everything.
Love you Mom, Always Rhonda

Grandma,
I'm going to miss making fried green tomatoes with you,
Christina

Grandma,
I'm going to miss our conversations about Pluto. I love you, very much. Bruce Jr.

Grandma,
I'll never forget the conversations.
You call me. Man love you always. Emerson Jr.

Grandma,
I'm going to miss joking, and taking pictures with you, Love Caleb

Grandma,
I'm going to miss all the snacks you bring us every Sunday. Love Joshua

Grandma,
I'm going to miss you playing your music in your room. Your westerns in the living room.
While praying in your bedroom. Love Jackie

You may have pass on, but your memories (and I have many) will live on within me. My first best friend. Love you forever. Tameka
