Short Life History of Ms. Lula Seyoum Weldu

Mother and lover of all, Ms. Lula Seyoum Weldu was born on January 6, 1966 in Asmara, Eritrea from her father Mr. Seyoum Weldu and mother Mrs. Zayid Sultan. Lula is the last born of a family of three sons and three daughters. Lula's mother Mrs. Zayid died when Lula was only seven years old, and few years later her brother Mr. Habtu Seyoum Weldu took Lula to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia around 1976 where he raised and educated her. She continued her education in Addis Ababa, and then God blessed Lula with a baby boy, named Dawit Mengisteab Welde, on June 17, 1986.

Lula was reunited with her sister Ms. Alemash Seyoum Weldu and went to go live with her in Torino, Italy for two years, before she briefly moved to Frankfurt, Germany. On February 27, 1990, Lula arrived in the United States with the sponsorship of her sister, Mrs. Mhret Seyoum Weldu, and she stayed in the city of Santa Rosa, California for few months, before finally moving to Washington, DC, which would eventually become her permanent home.

Lula was renowned as a friendly, diligent, and hard-working employee both by her colleagues and superiors at the Washington Court Hotel, where she worked for over 25 years, and she received multiple commendations and performance awards over the years. Lula embarked on the time consuming and tiring process of bringing her son Dawit to the United States, an undertaking that took many years and required perseverance and patience. She finally succeeded and they were finally reunited when he came to the U.S. in November 2016, and he has been by her side until she passed away.

Anyone who knows Lula knows that she was the helper of the needy. Even people who just met her instantly fell in love with her. She loved to make people laugh and feel good. She spoke so many languages she could charm anyone with just a few words. She was always happy and upbeat no matter what the circumstances were, and she loved her family so deeply, there wasn't anything she wouldn't do for them. Lula loved to host people for gatherings and holidays, but she also opened her home to many newcomers from Eritrea & helped them transition to this country. She was like a sister, mother and friend to them.

Lula fell suddenly ill towards the end of May 2021. She was admitted to the hospital and was cared for by the amazing health professionals of the MedStar Washington Hospital Center, her niece Fnot Tesfom Gebreyohannes, her sister Mrs. Mhret Seyoum Weldu, and her son Dawit Mengisteab Welde.

Lula succumbed to her illness on the afternoon of August 13, 2021, at the age of 55, and she is survived by her son Dawit Mengisteab Welde, and her siblings Mr. Estifanos Seyoum Weldu, Mrs. Mhret Seyoum Weldu, and Ms. Alemash Seyoum Weldu.
