

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be;
So He put his arms around you
and whispered,
"Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
and saw you fade away.
Although we LOVED YOU DEARLY
we could not make you stay.
A GOLDEN HEART stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best!

We, the staff of Nelson-Haile Funeral Home, sincerely hope that our service has been a source of comfort to each of you. Our goal, for the past five generations, has been and continues to be to provide excellent services to those families we are privileged to serve.

Obituary

Ms. Lottie B. Reed (affectionately known as Lottie Lee) was born on July 28, 1953, in Rembert, South Carolina to the late Lee Grant and Lillian Bradshaw. Lottie Lee was called home to be with the Lord on June 15, 2022, at her residence in Spring Hill, South Carolina.

Lottie Lee was formally educated in the public schools of Lee County, where she was a 1971, graduate of Ashwood Central High School. She was mainly employed with John Deere and retired from Trane in Columbia SC. Lottie was formerly married to William (Pat) Reed and this union was blessed with two children.

She was baptized at Union Baptist Church, where she was active on the Usher Board until her health declined. In her pastime, Lottie enjoyed gardening, cooking for family and friends, jewelry making, and online shopping. A favorite activity of hers was surfing Facebook and being the admin of Sam and Hattie family group.

Lottie was preceded in death by her parents, Lee Grant and Lillian Bradshaw, her brothers, Samuel Bradshaw, Marvin Bradshaw and Willie (Bill) Bradshaw and a grandson, Rylan G. Rogers.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her children, William Lotron Reed (Adrienne) of Rembert, SC, Zamyra Lotoria Rogers (Rashad) of Columbia, SC and James Anthony Bennett (Cassandra) of Columbia, SC; three sisters, Sally Bradshaw and Ivory Carter of Rembert, SC and Lenora Bradshaw-Harry of Atlanta, GA; two brothers, Lee Grant Bradshaw, Jr. of Columbia, SC and Ralph Bradshaw of Rembert, SC; five grandchildren, William Daeandre Reed, David Connor Reed, Zoey Leeann Rogers, Jonah Lotrell Reed and Ebony Bennett; five sisters-in-law; two brothers-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, loving cousins, and friends both near and dear.
