SUSTA

You lived your life to the fullest, I know.
I love you my sister, please don't go
The path you took was yours alone
I cried, the moment God called you home.

Words can't express the love I have for you.
I knew you my whole life and each day we grew.
We laughed, we cried and even got mad, we joked and picked.
The bond we shared was always thick.

You fought a tough fight and now your journey is done
I'm gonna miss you my sister. So I can't help but weep.
But, the things you taught me I will always keep.

We Started as eight and now it's seven.
God Wanted you Susta, we know you're Somewhere in God's heaven.
Always in our heart

Obituary

Sister Iola M. Halley, affectionately known as “Susta” entered peacefully into internal rest on June 23, 2022. She was born January 19, 1950 to the Late Jimmy Lee and Josie Bell Harris Murphy.

She was a very quiet person. She was a soft spoken person that always wore a smile, willing to help anyone she came in contact with. Her favorite pastime game was Connect Four where she was the champion. She loves to watch old time 70’s shows. She faithfully served in many roles in the church. She served as an Usher. She was in the Mass. and Gospel choir. She held a role in the Missionary Society until her health failed.

She was employed at DuPont (ARA Services) for many years until retirement. On November 15, 1985, Iola married Lawarence Halley and from that union they had two sons.

She was preceded in death by her son Gregory Murphy, her twin brother Grover Murphy, her brother Albert Murphy Sr., and one sister Tamelia Murphy as well as one nephew Albert Murphy Jr.

Those left to cherishes her fond memories are her husband Lawarence Halley of Lugoff, South Carolina; one son Travis Halley, of Lugoff, South Carolina; Grandson Isaiah Halley, of Madison, West Virginia; five sisters Willie Mae Murphy, Linda Woods, and Beverly Belton, all of Lugoff, South Carolina; Ruby (Eric) Swanson, of Lugoff, South Carolina; Nellie (Henry Jr) Stover, of Camden, South Carolina; two brothers, Mack Murphy and Jimmy (Kimberly) Murphy, both of Lugoff, South Carolina; three sisters in law, Frances (Simon) Bolden, of Upper Marlboro, Maryland; Ruth (Oladele) Omonijo, of Sumter, South Carolina; Dorothy Halley, of Rembert, South Carolina; one brother in law, Sam Halley, of Camden, South Carolina; two close friends, Alease Sumter and Frances Halley, of Rembert, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends

AFTER GLOW

I’d like the memory of me to be a happy one
I’d like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I’d like to leave an echo, whispering softly down the ways.

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I’d like the tears of those who grieve, to day before the sun, of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Husband and Son

You left us beautiful memories
your love is still our guide,
and though we cannot see you,
you’re always at our side.
