

“Away”

By: James Whitcomb Riley

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away!

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land,

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,

Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;

And loyal still, as she gave the blows
Of her warrior-strength to his country's foes.

Mild and gentle, as he was brave- ,
When the sweetest love of his life he gave

To simple things: Where the violets grew
Blue as the eyes they were likened to,

The touches of her hands have strayed
As reverently as her lips have prayed:

When the little brown thrush that harshly chirred
Was dear to her as the mocking-bird;

And she pitied as much as a man in pain
A writhing honey-bee wet with rain- .

Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead, she is just away!

Life Reflections

“Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.” Romans 6:4
