

“When Tomorrow Starts Without Me”

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much that you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
And so when tomorrow starts without me,
please try and understand,
That an angel came and called my name,
and took me by the hand.
He said my home was ready in Heaven far above,
and that I have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
As I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I have so much to live for and much yet to do,
It seems almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad.
I've thought of all the love we've shared,
and all the fun we've had.
If I could relive tomorrow, if even for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realize that this could never be,
The emptiness and memories would not take the place of me.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
But every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.

The Obituary

Mrs. Rose Annie Washington was born on May 28, 1951, in Camden, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Laura Jane Smith Murphy and the late Daniel Lee Murphy. She was also the sister to Vivian Murphy Brevard and the late Dannette Marie Murphy. Rose received her wings on Wednesday, August 3, 2022, at the wise old age of seventy-one.

Rose received her education in Kershaw County at Jackson High School, where she graduated with her class in 1969. She entered into the workforce working for a few different companies including Skyline. She worked as a material sorter until she became a housewife and a mother, which she was until she was called home to be with the Lord.

Rose lived to learn in order to learn to live. She loved life from friends to family, from being a feisty young woman to being a God-fearing virtuous lady, wife and mother. She enjoyed everything life had to offer. From being a daughter and a sister, to having a husband, children and grandchildren, a complete life she truly did have.

Rose a member of the Order of Eastern Stars, were she was a faithful member for at least fifty years. She was also a faithful member of St. Paul United Methodist Church for over fifty years. This church is where she continued her guidance to the Lord after giving her life to Christ at an early age.

Rose Annie Washington leaves to cherish her unconditional love and memories to her husband, George Clyburn Washington of Camden, SC; her two sons, George Lee Washington of Texas and Antoine Ezekiel Washington of Columbia, SC; her three grandchildren, Shacerria Tyshawn Washington, Darrell Javone Washington and DoVonte' Amad Washington all of Maryland; her sister, Vivian Brevard of Connecticut; and a host of great nieces and nephews, along with lots other relatives and friends who will all miss her.
