

“Since My Son Went Away”

Since my son went away,
 It seems he's nearer than before
 I cannot touch his hand,
 And yet he's with me more and more,
 And the years have never lessened
 The longing in my heart
 That came the day I realized
 That we must dwell apart,
 And just as long as memory lives,
 My son cannot die,
 For in my heart he's living still
 As passing years go by.

The Obituary

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." 23rd Psalm
