

“The Moment That You Left Me”

The moment that you left me
my heart split in two one side filled with memories
the other side died with you I often lay awake at night
when the world is fast asleep.
And take a walk down memory lane
with tears upon my cheek.
Remembering is easy
I do it every day
but missing you is a heartache that never goes away.
I hold you tightly within my heart
and there you will remain.
You see life has gone on without you but,
it will never be the same.

With All My Love,
Leon

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be So he put his arms around you and whispered come with me with tearful eyes
I watched you suffer and fade away.
Although I love you dearly.
I could not make you stay.
You didn't deserve what you went through.
So he gave you rest
God's garden must be beautiful because he only takes the best.
And when I saw you sleeping
so peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back to suffer that again.

Life Reflections

Deloris Ann Mitchell Salmond was born on June 23, 1959, to the late Henry and Ella Mae Mitchell.

Deloris was raised in a Christian home attending Ephesus Methodist Church. At an early age, Deloris was a trailblazer. When the desegregation act became law, Deloris’s parents signed the documents allowing her to become a member of the first 1st grade class of African American students to attend Camden Primary School in 1965. Deloris continued her high achievement levels both academically and physically at Camden Middle School and Camden High School. She became a Junior Varsity cheerleader for both of her middle school years while maintaining an A average in her school work. This thrustured her forward to becoming a leader on the Camden High School Varsity cheerleading squad for all four of her high school years. Deloris continued her education at Midlands Technical College and Columbia College majoring in Business Administration.

After dating in the early 80s, in 1987, Deloris and Leon Salmond, II, began their marital lives together. Deloris alongside all of her sisters worked diligently at all of their Father and Mothers Gospel Programs. She later became a member of The Order of the Eastern Star. Unfortunately Deloris was stricken with a heart attack on November 19, 2007, from which she did not recover, forcing her to spend the final 15 years of her life in a Longterm Care Facility.

Deloris departed this life on November 6, 2022, at Washington Hospital Center.

Deloris was preceded in death by her brother, Henry Jr.; a sister, Diane and a nephew, Robert.

Deloris leaves to mourn her passing her loving husband, Leon; two sisters, Cynthia (Gullmas) Johnson and Beverly (Byron) Lewis; a special cousin, Jacqueline Thomas; a very special sister, Aunt Maggie Grooms; three brothers-in-law, Isaac (Gail) Salmond, two sisters-in-law, Vanessa (Bernard) Slater; four nephews, Eric, Gullmas, Jr. (Thomassenia), Travis, and Bernardo; two nieces, Tammy and Nancy; one grand niece, Iria; two grand nephews, Amari and Akeem along with a host of other relatives and friends.
