

If Heaven had visiting hours,
I would be first in line
With a hand full of roses,
from Heaven's vine.
I would place them in your arms
with my eyes full of tears,
With sadness, not sorrow
For your job is done here.
From a child to an adult
You stuck by my side,
Your love was everlasting
Your smile..oh so bright
Grandma we will miss you
But this is not goodbye.
This is just see you later
Until we meet again.
In that great place in the sky.
Take your rest now sweet angel
You have fought long and hard,
96 years too young
Transiting into the brightest star.
We loved you then, we love you now,
We always have and we always will.
Sleep peacefully Grandma Alice,
We'll make you proud of us down here.

The Obituary

“For God so loved the world, he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.”

Alice Frances McCaskill was born on October 19, 1926, to the late Marie Caldwell and Lonnie Williams both of Bethune, South Carolina.

On December 27, 2022, God called His beloved angel home for her eternal rest, where He has prepared her mansion and streets paved with gold, celebrating everyday like Sunday.

Alice was a member of Mill Creek Baptist Church in Bethune, South Carolina, where she accepted Jesus Christ at an early age. She loved to sing, sew, fish, spend time with her children and grandchildren, talk trash and always had a comeback for everything. She also loved reading her Bible and the love that she had for her family was an everlasting love. Every person she crossed paths with knew that she was a kind, loving and generous person. Some called her “Rabbit,” some called her “Red,” but she was best known as Grandma.

Our precious mother/grandma was preceded in death by her husband, Louis McCaskill; two sons, Willie James McCaskill and Robert Louis McCaskill.

Her loving memory will always be cherished by her daughter, Vernell Blackmon of Charleston, SC, Dianne Hough of Elgin SC and Mary Bracey of Hartsville, SC; her son, Lonnie (Mary Frances) McCaskill of Columbia, SC; eighteen grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other close relatives and friends.
