"Five Generations of Excellent Service"

*When Tomorrow Starts
Without Me*

*When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much that you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too.
And so when tomorrow starts without me, please try and understand, that an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand
And said my home was ready in Heaven far above,
And that I have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
And as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die.
I have so much to live for and much yet to do,
It seems almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad.
I've thought of all the love we've shared and all the fun we've had.
If I could relive tomorrow, if even for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realize that this could never be,
The emptiness and memories would not take the place of me.
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
But every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.*

Life Reflections

MR. SAMUEL DONNELL STUCKEY was born on September 13, 1959, to the late James and Mary Stuckey in Camden, South Carolina.

Sammy was a 1977 graduate of Camden High School in Camden, South Carolina. He excelled in basketball and was a playground legend at the canteen. Upon graduation, he attended Mt. Olive College in Mt. Olive, North Carolina, after which he enlisted into the United States Army. After a few years, when he returned home to Camden, South Carolina, where he was employed by the Dana Corporation for a number of years.

On August 15, 1998, Sammy married the love of his life, Sharon Haynesworth Stuckey. Sammy and Sharon shared an unconditional love for each other that started as teenagers, both being able to unselfishly provide each other with the love, care, and support each needed.

On Thursday, February 23, 2023, at 7:15 in the morning, at MUSC in Florence, South Carolina, God dispatched his angels to accompany Sammy to his heavenly home. God saw him becoming weary and saw fit to reunite him with his beloved parents, Mary and James Stuckey, sisters, Martha Caldwell, Lela Greene, and Sallie Stuckey Alexander, and brother-in-law, Bruce Thomas.

Surviving to cherish his legacy are: wife of 25 years, Sharon Haynesworth Stuckey; his three daughters, Janae' Stuckey of Houston, Texas, DaVache' Stuckey of Orlando, Florida, and Phebie (James) Robinson of Camden, South Carolina; one son, Qwan Haynesworth of Camden, South Carolina; eleven grandchildren, Aiden James, Reign Sibilly, Rylee McKenzie, Mar'Quez Carlos, Kayley Haynesworth, Bethany McDaniel, Gabrielle Haynesworth, Malaya Whitters, Nigel Robinson, Jaxson Robinson, McKinley Robinson, and a sweet baby boy on the way; three sisters, Lula (James) Greene, Lottie (George) Brisbon, and Edith (Perry) Greene, all of Camden, SC; one brother, Charlie (Edna) Stuckey of New York, NY; four sisters-in-law, Joyce Jones of Lugoff, SC, Earnestine Brown and Kathy McCall, both of Camden, SC, and Mamie Holloman of Elgin, SC; three brothers-in-law, Jerry Brown of Columbia, SC, Stevie (Wyvonia) Jones of Camden, SC, and Nathan Green, Sr., of Cassatt, SC; two trusted lifelong friends, Tom Robinson and Issac Salmond; and host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and special friends.
