

Acknowledgments

The family of Christine V. Cook would like to thank everyone for their kind expressions. Your phone calls, visits, flowers, thoughts, and prayers have all helped greatly during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you, is our prayer.

We, the staff of Nelson-Haile Funeral Home, sincerely hope that our service has been a source of comfort to each of you. Our goal, for the past five generations, has been and continues to be to provide excellent services to those families we are privileged to serve.

In Remembrance

Ms. Christine Cook entered into eternal rest on Saturday, April 22, 2023, in Columbia, South Carolina, at MUSC Health, where she was visited by family and friends. Christine was 77 years old. She was born in the town of Camden in Kershaw County, South Carolina, on October 6, 1945, to the late Eva Cook and Robert Goodwin.

She was educated in the Kershaw County Schools. She worked for many years as a housekeeper and babysitter and grew to love them all as her own.

Ms. Cook was preceded in death by her father, Robert Goodwin; mother, Eva Cook; brothers, James Cook and Holland Cook; and sisters, Katie Green, Hattie Lewis, Cleo Rowell, and Alberta Galloway.

She is survived by her daughter, Beverly Drakeford; her grandchildren, Calvin Cook and Taneisha Monsanto; nine great-grandchildren; a sister, Aleen (Johnny) Harris; a brother, Robert Chambers, a brother-in-law, Samuel Rowell and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

This is overwhelming for me
but as I concentrate on the memories we shared,
the things that you taught me,
just how you influenced my life.

It's so hard to say goodbye
but I will cherish every second

That I spent with you and the many memories
of all the laughter.

I'll never forget anything...
just like the day when I was cutting your toenails

and it flew in my mouth,
we looked at each other
and burst out laughing.

Grandma, I miss you already and I will forever love you.

Your granddaughter, Taneisha
