

“When I Must Leave You”

Please don't say that I gave up, Just say I gave in.
Don't say that I lost the battle, For it was God's err to win or lose.
Please don't say how good I was, But that I gave my best.
Just say I tried to do what was right,
To give the most I could give, no less.
Please don't give me wing's or halo's, That's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve, No extras, just my due.
When you draw a picture of me, Don't draw a saint.
I've done some good, I've done some wrong,
So use all of your paint. Not just bright and light tones,
Use some gray and dark, In fact, don't put me down on canvas,
Paint me with your heart. Forgive me for the wrong I've done,
And with the love that's left, Thank God for my soul's resting,
Thank God for I've been blessed. Thank God for all who loved me,
Praise God who loved me best.
