

“The Day God Took You Home”

A million times we've needed you, a million times we've cried,
If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still.

In our hearts you hold a place, no one else could fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone,

Part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

Acknowledgments

We, the family of the late Mr. Lemuel Joe, would like to thank each and every one of you for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown to us during the passing of our loved one. May God's blessings be upon you forever.

The Joe Family

We, the staff of Nelson-Haile Funeral Home, sincerely hope that our service has been a source of comfort to each of you. Our goal, for the past five generations, has been and continues to be to provide excellent services to those families we are privileged to serve.

The Obituary

Mr. Lemuel James “Lemmie Joe” Joe, Jr., entered into eternal rest Sunday, December 16, 2018, at Kershaw Health Hospice, in Camden, South Carolina. He was born on September 24, 1953, in Bishopville, South Carolina, to the late Mr. Lemuel J. Joe, Sr. and Lois McDonald Joe.

Lemuel was educated in the public schools of Kershaw County Schools. He played football for Camden High School. Shortly after high school, he enlisted in the United States Army. After basic training, due to health reasons, Lemuel was medically discharged from the United States Army. Lemuel worked for DuPont and Camden Military Academy.

Lemuel was united in Holy matrimony in 1977, to the love of his life, the late Patricia Murphy. Lemuel loved spending time with family and friends, making them laugh, playing cards and showing off how strange he was while having a good time.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Ronald Joe.

Lemuel leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his precious memories his son, Marvin Walker of Cassatt, SC; four grandchildren, Laquisha Wright, Ranchelett Alexander, Isaiah Wood and Elise Alexander all of Camden, SC; two sisters, Brenda Toney of Columbia, SC and Shirley Ann Allen of Camden, SC; a special niece, Angela D. McClester of Columbia, SC; special nephews, LaJuane D Allen of Tennessee, Victor L. McClester of Oklahoma and Dantuane L. Wright of Columbia, SC all reared in the home with the deceased and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and many loving relatives and caring friends.
