

“May I Go”

May I go now? Don't you think the time is right?
May I say good by to pain filled days,
and endless lonely nights.

I've lived my life and done my best, an example I tried to be.
So I can take that step beyond, and set my spirit free!
I didn't want to go at first, I fought it with all my might!
But something seems to draw me now,
to a warm and living light.

I want to go! I really do! It's difficult to stay.
But I will try as best I can, to live just one more day.
To give you time to care for me,
and share your love and fears.

I know you're sad and afraid, because I see your tears.
I'll not be far, I promise that, and hope you'll always know.
That my spirit will be close to you, where ever you may go.
Thank you for loving me, you know I love you too.
That's why it's hard to say good-bye,
and end this life with you.

So hold me now, just one more time, and let me hear you say,
Because you care so much for me, you'll let me go today.

The Obituary

On August 5, 2019, the Lord decided it was time to reward one of His servants with a promotion from his temporary assignment here on Earth, to a permanent position in Heaven.

Mallie Lew Johnson was born on December 6, 1962, to the late George and Rebecca Johnson.

Mallie graduated from Camden High School in 1981. He joined the United States Army and served from 1981 until 1988. He served as a Food Service Specialist, in which he received several awards. He also was the Food Service Supervisor for the Lee County Correctional Facility. Mallie was also an OTR Truck Driver for many years until forced into retirement because of medical issues.

He was preceded in death by one brother, David Lewis Johnson.

Mallie leaves to cherish his memories, one son, Malachi Lewis Johnson of the home; a very special friend, Darlene Jones; one sister, Betty Chestnut of Camden, SC; five brothers, George Johnson of Elgin, SC, Samuel Johnson, Theodore (Virginia) Johnson and Harry L. Johnson all of Camden, SC and Richard Johnson of Cassatt, SC; three aunts, Daisy B. Jenkins and Mary Lee Johnson both of Bishopville, SC and Cora Lee Johnson of Philadelphia, PA; one uncle, Royal LeRoy Dixon, Sr. of Camden, SC and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
