

"A Mother's Love"

*A mother's love is something that no one can explain
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain
It is endless and unselfish and enduring, come what may For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .
It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking . . .
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .
It is far beyond defining it defies all explanation
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation . . .
A many splendored miracle man cannot understand And another wondrous evidence of God's tender, guiding hand

Life Reflections

Mrs. Corine Talathia Allen was born in Camden, South Carolina, to the late Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Marie Wilson Reed. She entered eternal rest on September 18, 2019, at Sumter East Health and Rehab Center in Sumter, South Carolina.

She was educated in the Kershaw County Public School System, where she graduated from Jackson High School in 1953. She worked for many years as a sewing machine operator and in the home. Sis. Corine was a lifetime member of Good Hope Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church in Camden, South Carolina, where she was dedicated to worshipping her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, serving the congregation as a faithful member of the usher board and member of the Gospel and Senior Choirs, encouraging her Sisters and Brothers in Christ with her loving smile and warm hugs, and supporting her pastors in their ministries. She was known everywhere for her love of singing songs of praise, especially her testimonial songs: "I'm All Right Now!" and "It's Getting Late in the Evening!"

Sis. Corine was preceded in death by her husband, Mr. Hazel Allen; her sisters, Mrs. Laura Silver, Mrs. Tina Brown, Mrs. Louise Fields, and Mrs. Carolyn Ellis; and two brothers, Mr. Edward Reed and Mr. Willie Reed.

She leaves to cherish her memory and to continue her legacy of love: her daughter, Ms. Margaret Allen of Rembert, SC; her sisters, Mrs. Dianne Thomas and Mrs. Edith Drakeford, both of Camden, SC; her four grandchildren, Ms. Cierra Dubose of Rembert, SC, Ms. Kionna Allen of Georgia, Ms. Siquasia Drakeford, and Ms. Adaria Drakeford, both of Rembert, SC; her five great-grandchildren; and a host of other beloved family members and friends, including her life-long friend, Mrs. Juanita Halley. Mother Corine will be remembered by all who knew her for her love of God, her church, and all of God's children.
