

“Come to Me”

God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, “Come to Me.”

With mercy never ending
He came and gave you rest.
God’s garden must be beautiful:
He only takes the best.
And when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful-free from pain,
We could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

“Weep Not for Me”

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle light
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul’s sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul’s at rest. There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life.
