Acknowledgments

The family of the late Mother Mary Bennett wish to express their heartfelt gratitude for the expression of hope, faith and love shown during this time of bereavement. May God continue to richly bless and keep us as we move forward in hope of that day when we will all see Jesus and sing and shout the Victory!

The Bennett Family

We, the staff of Nelson-Haile Funeral Home, sincerely hope that our service has been a source of comfort to each of you. Our goal, for the past five generations, has been and continues to be to provide excellent services to those families we are privileged to serve.

Life Reflections

On April 6, 1938, God blessed the late Samuel and Mary Holliday with their first baby girl Mary Holliday Bennett affectionately known as “Mae B”. On the evening of January 27th, 2020, Mary quietly slipped away to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at Kershaw County Memorial Hospital.

Mary attended the public schools of Kershaw County. She received her CNA at Kershaw County Memorial Hospital and was employed there for thirty plus years.

She was married to the late Peter Bennett, Sr. and then later married Henry Sanders.

Mary was a life-time member of Good Hope Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church in Camden, South Carolina where she was dedicated to worshiping God, and serving the congregation as a faithful member of the usher board until her health declined, and even then she didn't let that stop her. She also was apart of the United Methodist Women and the stewardship. She loved her God and her church.

Mary loved fishing, and her pets, and making sure her garden was full of vegetables that she would quite often share with her family and friends.

Mary was preceded in death by her daughter, Mary Alice Bennett; a son, Peter Bennett, Jr. (Peewee); two brothers, Samuel Holliday, II and Wash Holliday; and two brothers-in-law, Grannison Warren and Clarence Holmes.

Mary was loved by all of her family and she leaves to cherish her memories three loving children, William Bennett (Susan) of Charlotte, NC, Carolyn D. Miller of Camden, SC and Barbara Woodard of Charlotte, NC; five step-children; a special son/grandson, Jason Bennett (Sara) of Charlotte, NC; eleven grandchildren, Charlie (Danielle), Wanda, Amber, Channing, Cory, Pamela (Antonio), Patrick, Erin and Callesia (Anthony); seventeen great-grandchildren; nine siblings, Rosa Holmes, Francenia Warren, Mabel Holliday, Isaiah (Geraldine) Holliday, Suzannah Holliday, Easter (Burgoyne) Barnhill, Lawrence (Estelle) Moses, James (Pamela) Holliday and Thomas (Edna) Holliday, Sr.; two brothers-in-law, James Bennett and Michael Bennett (Odessa); six sisters-in-law; Linda Bennett, Pearl Bennett, Alberta Bennett, Nettie McClendon, Carolyn Houston, Vivian Barnes and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

A Mother's Love

By: Helen Steiner Rice

A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .
It is patient and forgiving
when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking . . .
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .
It is far beyond defining,
it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation . . .
A many splendored miracle man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.
