

She's in a Better Place

She's in a better place now than

She's ever been before;

All pain is gone; she's now at rest;

Nothing troubles her anymore.

It's we who feel the burden of our

Sadness and our grief.

We have to cry, to mourn our loss,

Before we get relief.

We know we'll reconnect with her

At the end of each life's road.

We'll see her cherished face again

When we walk in Heaven on gold.

Acknowledgement
We, the family of the late Ethel Joe Tucker, wish to express our heartfelt gratitude for the expression of hope, faith, and love shown during this time of bereavement. May God continue to richly bless and keep us as we move forward in hope of that day when we will all see Jesus and sing and shout the Victory!

The Joe and Tucker Families

We, the staff of Nelson-Haile Funeral Home, sincerely hope that our service has been a source of comfort to each of you. Our goal, for the past five generations, has been and continues to be to provide excellent services to those families we are privileged to serve.

Obituary

Ethel J. Tucker was born April 18, 1935, to the late Miller and Minnie Curdies Gaither Mack. She was educated in the public schools. She worked for Clemson extension as a nutritionist. She was the founder of the Canty Hill, Jr. Choir, later known as the adult choir, and she was also the founder of the Cassett Community singers, later known as the C.M. Singers. She was the senior choir president and choir leader for 30 years. She was also a member of the trustee board.

She was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Jasmine Tucker, and a sister, Mary Mack Tucker.

She leaves to cherish her life: a daughter, Delores D. Whittiker Cassatt; three sons, Earl A. Joe and Johnie L. Joe, both of Camden and Nathaniel Taylor of Dethune, SC; a stepson, Sammie (Dorothy) Tucker; six adopted children, Cheryl Tucker, Tyris Tucker, Tiffany Portee, Betty Oliver, Jimmie Olivier, Jr., and Jennifer Oliver; three sisters, Alma Adams, Raphael Gooden, and Rosa Lee, all of Camden; ten grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends; special friends who are like sisters, Lelia Boykin, Annie Ruth Richardson, Mary Johnson, and Martha Halley; and a cousin who is like a sister, Edith Cotton; a special niece and caregiver, Libby Ransom.
