

“Remembering”

Sitting Here Remembering The Times
With You So Heavy On My Mind
Auntie, Auntie I Love You So Much And So Dear
I Can't Believe You Left Us Here
I Realize It's Something We All Must Go Through Without God, Our Father, What Would We Do?

Remembering All The Times We Spent Together
In My Heart You'll Stay Forever
Remembering All The Laughs That Would Make Me Cry
All The Way Up Until Three Days
Before You Said Goodbye

Auntie, I'm Going To Miss
Talking With You On The Phone
And Checking To See What You Sent In The Mail
Most of All, The Perfumes With Those Sweet Soft Smells
Remembering All The Wisdom You Shared With Me
When I Look To Heaven, It's Your Face I'll See

I'm Going to Miss You So Much
But Have Lots of Memories
Memories that Will Never Be Forgotten
So Grateful For The Times We've Shared
I Know You Always Loved Me And Always Cared
God, Thanks For Giving Us A Second Chance For Being Together Not Just Here on Earth But Also In Heaven.
We all Must Realize One Day We'll Be Gone
See You When We All Get Home.

Acknowledgments

We, the family of the late Flora Stoney, would like to thank all of you for your caring, loving support during our time of sorrow. You have added to our belief in family and friends and multiplied our faith in God. Your sympathetic generosity had divided us from the uncaring world where Christ dwells.

The Stoney Family

We, the staff of Nelson-Haile Funeral Home, sincerely hope that our service has been a source of comfort to each of you. Our goal, for the past five generations, has been and continues to be to provide excellent services to those families we are privileged to serve.

Dear God

Please look after my mother

Just as she looks after her family

Bless her and give her all the Happiness

She hopes for us to have

And let her feel protected

Just as I feel protected

by the Angel I call

MOM

Life Reflections

Mrs. Flora Stoney entered into eternal rest on February 25, 2020. She was born in Brooklyn, New York on July 31, 1938, the eldest child of Irene and Joseph E. Clark. She received her education through the Kershaw County School System.

While living in New York, Flora was reunited with Columbus Stoney (deceased) her husband of fifty-six years. During that union of marriage, they were blessed with five daughters, Georgette, Gwendolyn, Brigitte, Sharon and Towanda (Herbie) all of New York. Flora worked at Victoria Vogue in New York for many years before deciding to take some time off to be a full-time homemaker for her family. In 1978 she returned to work at Marine Midland Bank, New York until she retired in August 2000 at the age of 62.

In her spare time, Flora enjoyed reading and studying her bible, cooking, shopping, listening to music, attending Broadway plays, keeping in touch with family and friends, a lover of fine fragrances and entertaining her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was very family oriented.

She was preceded in death by one brother and three sisters.

Flora was a loving mother, grand-mother and great-grand-mother. Those left to cherish her memories are her five grandsons, Kosahn (Julie), Rahshon (Tameka), Aikeem (Nyema), Darius; one granddaughter, Columani; six great-grandsons, Amir, Brian, Damonte, Adonis, Joaquin and Chase; four great-granddaughters, Imani, Briana, Skye and Amirah; two brothers-in-laws, Robert (Mary) and George a.k.a. Bobby (Eleanor) of New York; six sisters-in-law, Jessie Lee of New York, Mary Jane, Inez, Mittie (Sam), Virginia (Issac) and Vermell (Reverend Bennett) all of South Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many well-wishers.

She will truly and dearly be missed by all of us and those who knew and loved her.
