

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took God's hand when I heard His call.

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I found peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burden with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time here seemed all to brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, God set me Free!

Life Reflections

Mr. Eddie Davis was born in Sumter County, South Carolina on February 23, 1939, to the late Florence Lee Davis and George Davis. He departed this earthly life on April 30, 2020, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was oldest of eight siblings.

He attended Ebenezer High School in Dalzell, South Carolina. He moved to Washington, DC where he became a butcher at a factory. He later moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he managed a Laundromat until his health began to fail.

Eddie was always a person that you could get along with and never left you without a smile or a joke. He will always be remembered for his smooth dressy styles and was never seen without his hat and shades. He will truly be missed.

In addition to his parents, Eddie was preceded in death by a brother, George Davis, Jr. and two sisters, Barbara S. Palmer and Elese Davis.

He leaves to cherish his memories, two sisters, Mary D. Glover of Rembert, SC and Carrie D. Dixon of Camden, SC; two brothers, Teddy Dixon of Philadelphia, PA and Snyder (Grace) Davis of Rembert, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
