“Directions To Where Heaven Is”

Make a right onto “Believeth Blvd.”
Keep straight and go through the green light
Which is Jesus Christ. From there, you must turn onto the “Bridge of Faith” for which is over trouble waters.
When you get off the bridge, make a right turn and keep straight.
You are on “Kings Highway” – Heaven Bound.
Keep going for three miles:
One for the Father, One for the Son and one for the Holy Ghost.
Then exit onto “Grace Blvd.”
From there, make a right turn on: “Gospel Lane”
Keep straight and then make another right on “Prayer Blvd.” As you go on your way, yield not to the traffic on “Temptation Ave.”
Also, avoid “Sin Street” because it is a Dead End. Pass up “Envy Drive” and “Have Ave.” also pass “Hypocrisy St.”
“Gossip Lane” and “Backbiting Blvd.”
But you Have to go down “Long Suffering Lane,”
“Persecution Blvd.,” and “Trials and Tribulations Ave.” At the end of the Life Reflections

At 12:45 PM, September 16th, 2020, Mrs. Lena Florence Milligan transitioned peacefully from her hard work and labor on her Earthly home to her heavenly home with her loved ones by her side. Lena was born on January 9th, 1949, to the late James Johnson Sr. and Mary Keys Johnson.

After graduating, she became employed with the South Carolina Commission of the Blind in Columbia, South Carolina as an Aide teaching braille an assisting the clients anyway possible.

Mrs. Lena was involved in her church family. She grew up in a strict tightknit Christian environment which made her fond of God. The teaching and love for Jesus Christ continued as she got older, which led to Mrs. Lena receiving Christ in her 20's, becoming a member of the Saint Stephens Missionary Baptist Church, which was under the leadership of Reverend Harris at the time. During this time, she met Harry "Cigar" Milligan. This encounter blossomed into a 40-year union of friendship, loyalty, genuine love for each other, but most importantly, they shared a bond for Jesus Christ.
