

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took God's hand when I heard His call.

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I found peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burden with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time here seemed all to brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up you heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, God set me Free!

The Obituary

Yvette Gwayne Williams was born in Camden, South Carolina on May 11, 1955. She was the daughter of the late Ernestine Wiggins and the granddaughter of the late George and Rebecca Williams. She entered into eternal rest on Friday, December 4, 2020, at Prisma Health at Richland Memorial Hospital.

During her early years she attended the Kershaw County Activity Center. She was later a resident at Midlands Center of Columbia, SC prior to transferring to Babcock Center at Osprey House until her death.

Yvette loved to collect books with pictures of houses and cars. She spoke often of moving to a new house and stated everybody could live with her.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories; two sisters; Vernessa (William) Cook of Camden, South Carolina and Robin Lofton of Yonkers, New York; two brothers; George Williams of Greenville, North Carolina and Milton Wiggins of Homestead, Florida. A host of nieces, nephews, relatives and a very nurturing caregiver; Tracey Ervin, the House Manager at Osprey House.
