

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.

I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took God's hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burden with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time here seemed all to brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, God set me Free!

Acknowledgments

We, the family of Alonzo Garvin, would like to express our gratitude to those who prayed for us and gathered to express their love, kindness and support during the life celebration of our beloved. We would like to give a special thanks to Alonzo's caregivers for their love and support, Rebecca Cauthen, Gracie Brown, Wesley Adamson, and Geraldine Adamson.

The Obituary

Alonzo Garvin, son of the late Lizzie B Cramer Garvin, was born in Orangeburg, South Carolina, on August 17, 1923. He peacefully departed this earth on Wednesday, January 6, 2021, at his home.

He was preceded in death by a step-daughter, Carolyn Frazier.

Alonzo and his siblings (Ashby, Mertis, and Thelma) were reared by their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Hettie Ashe Cramer Sims. As a young man, Alonzo moved to New York and was married to the late Minnie Adamson Garvin. He was employed by and retired from The New York Times after four decades of service. He and his dear friend, Dorothy Adamson, relocated to Camden, SC later in life, where he remained until his death.

He is survived by a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
