

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took God's hand when I heard His call.

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burden with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time here seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, God set me Free

The Obituary

On February 9, 2021, Nellie departed this life at Spartanburg Rehab and Wellness Center, in Spartanburg, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Murray and Ellen McCord. She resided at Springdale Health for more than fourteen years, her home away from home and known by all at the facility.

Nellie worked for many years until she became ill. She loved good religious music and all the activities at the center. She loved the Lord, He gave her strength to bear all she went through. The good Lord carried her in His arms to a beautiful place with no more pain.

She leaves to mourn her daughter, Mary E. Jones (Andrew) of Pittsburgh, PA; one granddaughter, Andreana Ferguson of Baltimore, MD; one grandson, Andrew Jones, Jr. (Janelle) of Avon, CT; three great-grandchildren, Kamaria Ferguson, Sydney Jones and Chase A. Jones; one great-grand, Ayvah Pratt; two sisters, Pearl Drakeford and Elease Williams of Camden, SC and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
