

“It Will Never Be Goodbye...”

Author Unknown

If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.

“Memories in the Heart”

Author Unknown

Feel no guilt in laughter, she knows how much you care
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she's not here to share
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to She'd hope that you can carry on, the way you always do
So talk about the good times and the ways you showed you cared
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared
Let memories surround you.

A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day
That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here
And fills you with the feelings that she is always near
For if you keep these moments, you will never be apart
And she will live forever locked safe within your heart

Life Reflections

Carol Ransom Davis, daughter of the late Albert and Willie Mae Ransom and wife of the late Johnny Davis, was born February 1, 1952 and departed this life on February 9, 2021, at her residence.

Carol was raised in a loving Christian home. She attended the public schools of Sumter County. She worked for Sumter School District 2 at Rafting Creek Elementary as an administrative clerk for 15 years. Carol was a long-time member of Pine Grove AME Church. She loved the Lord and served in many roles within the church to include assistant church school superintendent, teacher of the women church school class, advisor of the Lay organization, and assistant class leader. Carol loved to garden, travel, sew, and take on various DIY projects. There was nothing she could not do. Most of all she loved her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband: Johnny Davis, one sister: Bernice Westberry; two brothers, Tommy Ransom, and Albert “Bam Bam” Ransom, one niece, Sonya Michelle Westberry.

Carol leaves to cherish her memories one son, Nicholaus (Faith) Davis of Columbia, SC; two grandchildren whom she adored, Naomi Caroline Davis and Nicholaus Ransom Davis II; one sister, Berma Harper of Hyattsville, MD; one brother, Frederick Carl Ransom of the home; three nieces; five nephews; one sister-in-law; one godson and a host of family, friends and loved ones.
