Obituary

Beulah Nell Graham-Cotton, better known as (Mae Frances) daughter of the late Albert Graham and Desline graham and wife of Ralph Cotton was born on January 13th 1961 and departed this life on February 15th 2021.

Beulah was raised in a loving Christian home. She was known as “Ella or Mae Frances,” to those who were close to her. She was also known to “not be the one to play with, but also the one you will get all the love and support from with a simple phone call or text. She attended Sumter County public schools. She worked for The Life Care Center of Columbia for over 20 plus years. She loved taking care of people, praising the Lord and was a longtime member of Pine Grove AME Church. She loved fashion, jewelry and, watching Netflix. Most of all she loved her family and friends.

She leaves to cherish memories with her husband Ralph Cotton; Step dad Kenneth Alexander; sons Keith Cotton, Rashad Halley, and Tyree Halley; daughter's Safa Halley, and Malaysia Halley; Five grandchildren; Sister's Violet Graham, Beverly Rimer, Deborah Davis and Mary Davenport; Brother's James Graham and Terry Heriot; Three nieces; One nephew; Four grandnieces and one grandnephew; Four sister-in-laws and a host of family, and friends.

Grandma was the best! She didn’t play! But she always made us feel special and loved. I’m going to miss going to grandma’s for the weekend.
