

“I’m Free”

Don’t grieve for me, from pain I’m free.
I’m following the path God laid for me.
I took God’s hand when I heard His call.

I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burden with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life’s been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times a loved one’s touch.
Perhaps my time here seemed all to brief,
Don’t lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, God set me Free!

“God Saw You Getting Tired”

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered, “Come to Me.”
With tearful eyes we watched you slowly fade away.
Although we loved you dearly
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

We Love You and We will Miss You

The Obituary

Mr. Furman Osborn Brisbon, the son of the late Ms. Ellanora Brooks and the late Mr. Joe Council, Sr was born on May 4, 1953, in Rembert, South Carolina. He was raised by the late Mr. & Mrs. Mackie and Reba Mae Brisbon, Sr. Furman entered eternal rest on Tuesday, March 2, 2021, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Furman grew up in the New York area where he received his education in the New York Public School Systems. Being raised by a God-fearing family, he attended services at Springhill United Methodist and Pine Grove AME Church. He served as a trustee giving his knowledge and time.

In 1972, he joined the United States Air Force, serving nearly 5 years throughout Thailand, Myrtle Beach, and more. During his traveling he later settled in Columbus, Ohio, where he worked at DFAS for several years making lots of friends with his kind friendly attitude. Upon retiring, Furman returned home to Camden, South Carolina to enjoy his family. Furman was always full of love and a laughter that will never be forgotten. His greetings were always with a huge hug and kiss.

Furman was preceded in death by his: birth parents and loving parents; two sons, Todd Showell and Dewayne Brisbon; two sisters, Mattie Green and Reba Mae Brisbon and one brother, Bruce Council.

He leaves precious memories to be cherished by his daughter, Trizenia “Kenya” Brisbon (Maurice) Simmons of Summerville, SC; two uncles, Samuel Sessions and Steve Brooks; one aunt, Hattie Pearl Dinkins; five brothers, Mackey Brisbon, Jr., Albert Brooks, Joe Council, Jr., Harvin (Cheryl) Council, Ellis (Barbara) Wells; seven sisters, Minnie Riley, Alice Brooks, Ella Pearl (Dean) Wright, Sandra Whiting, Dianne Council Mills, Harriett (Lamont) Wingate, Cheryl (Al) Jenkins; eight grandchildren; a very special assumed daughter-in-law, Ethel Duren; dedicated friend/helper, Joe Duren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
