

"Heaven Couldn't Wait"

Heaven couldn't wait for you.

Yet you waited for me.

The faces of me and my kids,

Could have been the last faces you waited to see.

Hours earlier I spoke to you on the phone

I told you I was off to get something to eat and I'd be on my way home.

Who would have known that Heaven couldn't wait.

If it were up to me, I promise I'd put up a debate.

Heaven couldn't wait but yet you called me for a reason,

You said you wanted to know if I was ok and whether I was still breathing.

By the time I had arrived,

I couldn't believe what was before my eyes.

To rock you, tap you, shake you,

Not even thinking the Lord would take you.

The last thing I wanted to think of was never being able to see you again,

You were my mother, my protector and most importantly my best friend.

Now you'll be able to rest.

With no pain, no worries, no heartbreaks and no stress.

But Heaven couldn't wait for you.

Yours Truly,

We Love You

The Obituary

Ms. Eva Mae Moses, daughter of the late Oliver and Mary Moses, was born in Fairfield County, South Carolina. Her Earthly life ended on March 9, 2021, after an extended illness.

Ms. Moses attended Kershaw County Public Schools. She was reared in a religious home and received Christ at an early age. She was a devoted member of Scott Hill Baptist Church until she moved to Brooklyn, New York. There she joined Saint John Baptist Church, where she served faithfully also singing on the choir.

Ms. Moses was a seamstress at Archie and Company making bags and lining for wigs. She worked there for many years until her retirement. She loved fine clothes and hats, Christian cross word puzzles and cooking.

Eva Mae was preceded in death by her son, Oliver Moses; two brothers, Oliver Moses, Jr. and Grover Moses; five sisters, Bertha Reed, Della Adamson, Ellen Miller, Emma Gray and Mary Lee Moses.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her loving son, Calvin (Sarah) Moses of Buffalo, NY; Besty McLeod, who was raised as a sister, of Brooklyn, NY and of other relatives and friends.
