

"You are My Friend"

This greeting should be a certificate of reward,
for the friend you have been too me.

Accompanied by a full orchestra,
performing a beautiful symphony.

Balloons from the ceiling,
a truck load of flowers,
ticket to your favorite show,
guaranteed long life,
a bill of good health,
and all the numbers to the lotto.

You deserve all these thing
just for being there.
And it's with all of my heart
I want you to see
regardless of where our paths
may take us in life,
You'll always have a friend,
right here in me.

Acknowledgments

We, the family of the late Mr. Willie Carter, Jr.,

The Obituary

“For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.” II Timothy 4:6-7

On Friday, January 14, 2022. God called to rest one of His sons, Mr. Willie Carter, Jr. He was born on August 4, 1952, in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late Mr. Willie “Dick” Carter, Sr. and the late Lilian M. Stuckey Carter.

He attended the public schools Washington, DC. JR or “Shocker”, as he was called, was a hard working and loving husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle and friend. He was always willing to lend a helping hand. He worked many jobs and retired from Thermoid in Camden, South Carolina after working for many years.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. Willie “Dick” Carter, Sr. and the late Lilian M. Stuckey Carter; two sisters, Patricia Carter and Lugenia “Lue” Carter Brisbon; two brothers, James Lee Allen and Rickey Carter.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories, his wife of thirty-five years, Mrs. Polly Brisbon Carter; one daughter, Mrs. Geneva (Andrew) Pearson of Florence, SC; one grandson, Mr. Andrew (Amani) Pearson of Florence, SC; one granddaughter, Andrea (Isaiah) Henry of Florence, SC; one sister, Ms. Dianne Cooper of Philadelphia, PA; two brothers, Mr. Tyrone Carter and Mr. Jerome Carter both of Baltimore, MD; one brother-in-law, Mr. Glen Brisbon of Newark, NJ; a special cousin, Mr. Otis Carter of Camden, SC and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
