

*He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away”
Revelation 21:4*

Acknowledgements

The family of the late Mrs. Armie Jean Sanders is filled with gratitude for your outpouring expressions of love and concern. To those of you who have traveled miles to share in the home going celebration - we thank you. To those of you who have participated in this service - we thank you. To those of you who extended loving support during the passing of our beloved one – we thank you. For the flowers, the cards, the telephone calls, the food, the visits, your concern, and your prayers – thank you. For each act of kindness shown, may God richly bless you. We have been strengthened by your unselfish devotion.

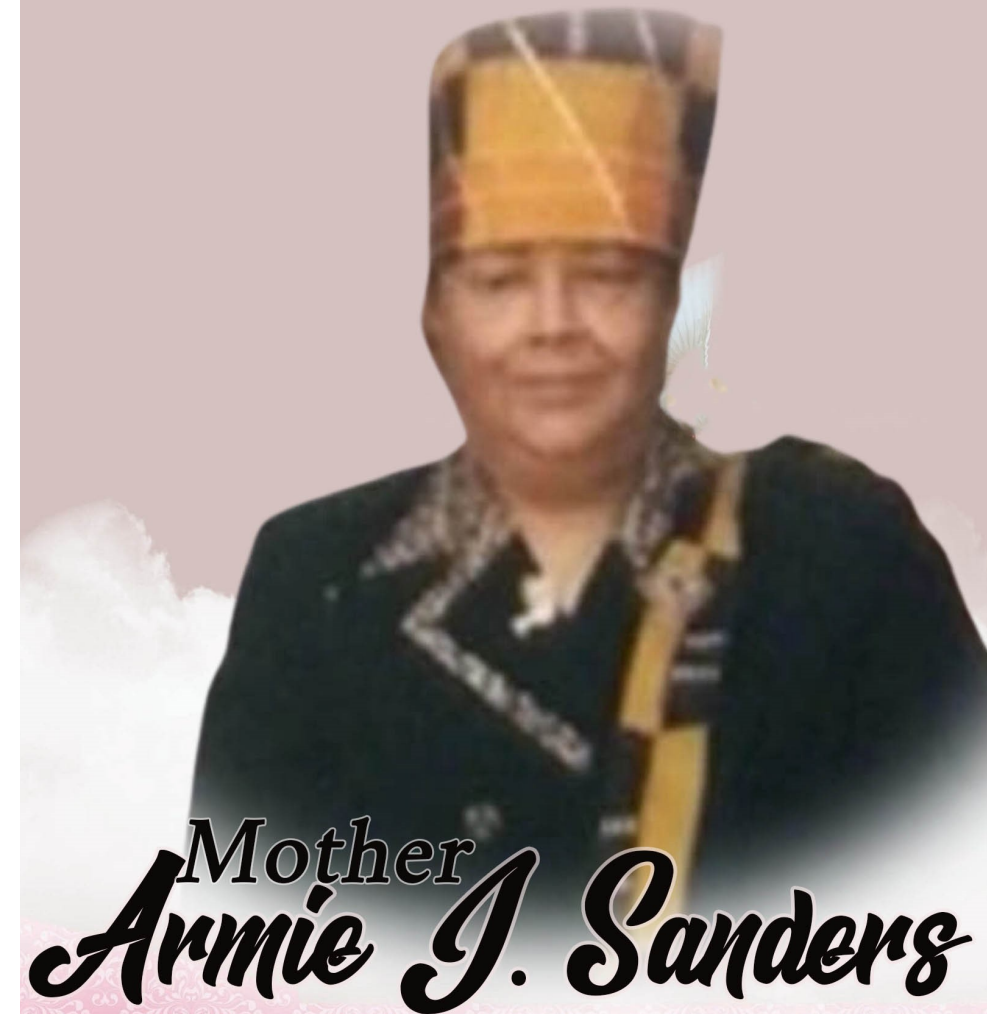

The Family

We, the staff of Nelson-Haile Funeral Home, sincerely hope that our service has been a source of comfort to each of you. Our goal, for the past five generations, has been and continues to be to provide excellent services to those families we are privileged to serve.

Obituary

Mother Armie Jean Sanders was born April 12, 1938, in Tuscaloosa, Alabama to the late Herman Scales, and Mother Willie Lee (Sally) Scales. She was the baby sister of four; Ruby Scales Smith Mahan & Reppie Olivia Scales who have preceded her in death and she is survived by Hermie Lee Scales McMikles of Peterson, Alabama.

Armie Jean married her first love, Mr. Johnnie Peebles (deceased), in 1955 and moved to Baltimore Maryland in 1957. From that union five children were born, and one child, Michaelangelo Peebles, preceded her in death. Widowed at young age she then met and married the love of her life Deacon Clifford Sanders in 1973. From that union one child was born, Marvin Xavier Peebles who has preceded her in death.

She became a Christian at an early age and joined St. Paul Baptist Church in Peterson, AL. Later in life she joined Mt. Zion Baptist where she was a member of the choir and attended for as long as her health allowed. She was fondly known throughout the community as 'Armie' and to a select few 'Gino'. Devoted Wife, Sister, Mother, Step-Mother, Aunt, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother and Great-Great Grandmother, her many passions included cooking, traveling and fashion. She was known for her many hats both literally and figuratively (she owned over 100 hats!)

As Armie makes her journey into eternity, those left to cherish the wonderful memories of her life are her sister Mrs. Hermie-Lee Scales McMikles of Peterson AL, her daughters; Brenda (Rick) Little of Byron GA, Linda (Leon) Saunders of Baltimore MD, Wanda Ocain of Baltimore MD; son, Johnnie Peebles of Camden SC, and her loving, devoted husband of 49 years, Mr. Clifford Sanders of Camden SC; nineteen grandchildren, twenty-six great-great grandchildren, three great-great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.
Ecclesiastes 3:1 - 2, 4
