

A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax
and you will find I'm really still there
inside your mind
Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain,
there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as
"up above"

Obituary

Born August 19, 1928 to Frank and Rosie Pearson in Downs, Alabama. Growing up she held various jobs as a domestic worker and later she married Emmett (Pete) Sellers and lived in Montgomery Alabama before relocating to Newark NJ.

During the marriage they had no children. Once moving back to Alabama she took a job as the Head Salad Chef at Alabama Christian College, now Faulkner University. She later took on raising 2 of her nephews ,Kevin Pearson and Rod Pearson from ages 5 & 6. Continuing her career she worked at Auburn University at Montgomery where she retired in 1993, at the age of 65.

Living out her remaining years surrounded by family and a community of friends, she was called home to be with the Lord on December 19, 2017.

Preceded in death by her Father and Mother, along with 6 brothers, Willie B, Charles, Eddie ,Samuel , and Clinton Pearson, and Eugene Holmes. Leaving behind 4 sisters, Pearlina Crockett, Rosie Pollard, Mildred Duncan, Jackie Jenkins, and 1 sister-in-law, Gloria Pearson, along with 2 brothers, Frank Pearson and Roosevelt Johnson; her 2 sons(nephews) Kevin and Rod Pearson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and related family and friends.

"May she rest in heaven forever".
