Life Reflections

A Time to Be Born

Mrs. Connie Ann Randolph Turpin, the daughter of Fannie (Robert) Battle and Stephen Tolbert, was born February 26, 1964 in Hurtsboro, Alabama.

A Time to Worship

Connie accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Hurtsboro, AL where she remained until her untimely demise.

A Time to Depart

Connie departed from her earthly journey on Saturday, July 14, 2018 and entered eternal rest at the East Alabama Medical Center, Opelika, Alabama.

A Time to Mourn

A lifetime of wonderful memories are cherished by her loving husband of twenty-four years, Aronza J. Turpin, Tuskegee, AL; three daughters, Whitney Randolph (Vincent), Huntsville, AL; Danielle Randolph (Derrell), Opelika, AL and Aronda Turpin, Montgomery, AL; one grandchild, Derrell Smith, Jr., Opelika, Alabama; three sisters, Rose Battle, Montgomery, AL; Josephine Bowen (Robert), Tuskegee, AL; and Ardra Caldwell, Atlanta, GA; six brothers, Gerald Randolph, Tuskegee, AL; Robert Battle, Jr. (Patricia), Auburn, AL; Mark Battle (Sheila), Auburn, AL; Benjamin Battle, Montgomery, AL; Jerome Battle, Montgomery, AL; Charles Cox, Tuskegee, AL; special aunt, Ola Watkins; two special cousins, Katrina Bass and Felishe Randolph; two dear friends, Angela Huggins and Wilford Crimes; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Dear Mother:

We were not ready to let you go, but God knew what was best. Your smile and your warm embrace was so genuine that no one can fill your place. Words can't express how this moment has made us feel. Everyone knew if you ask Connie - she would do it. We know you have no more suffering and no more pain. Mother, everything that you taught thru the years will not be in vain. Someday mother we will meet again. We love you more than words could ever explain and you will always be remembered as a loving and caring mother, wife, sister, aunt, friend and world's best Southern cook. Our hearts may be sore and as time goes by, we will miss you more. Lord if Roses grow in heaven, please pick a bunch for us and place them in our Mother's arms. Tell her they are from us and when she turns to smile, place a kiss on her cheek and let her know that she will truly be missed every day and our hearts are weak from her departure.

God's Will

Let not your heart be troubled

Over how I slipped away

For the roll is called up yonder

By night and by day.

When the chimes of time rang out my name

I had no reason to explain

To you that's left behind

Eternal life has proclaimed.

For God has smiled on me

Yes, he has set me apart

To live among the chosen few

So rejoice within your hearts.

You may never understand

Why God's will must be done

But obey thy God, life I have done

And my battle here has been won.
