

What My Aunt Meant to Me

Aunts have no wands or wings,
So they work with wisdom, love, and things.
Having taken on this role,
You loved me right down to my soul.

You offered kindness
And greetings with a hug and a kiss.
Each freely out of love which we will miss.

You're in God's Heaven now
And no longer in any pain,
In our thoughts you'll always remain.

How lucky we were,
How blessed we have been,
You were more than our Aunt,
You were also our friend.

Love,
Your Great Nieces

Beautiful memories of Mrs. Lillie Bell Cox will always and forever be shared and cherished by: two loving daughters, Mrs. Ora Boyd, Notasulga, AL and Mrs. Mary Walton, Detroit, MI; a devoted sister, Mrs. Francis Calloway, Dayton, OH; a faithful sister-in-law, Bertha Hutchinson, Tallassee, AL; and a host of nieces, nephews and other dear relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
