The Final Flight

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a love, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now. He set me free.

The family of Thelma Judy Womack gratefully appreciate the many acts of kindness and love shown to them during their time of bereavement. May God Bless and keep each one of you.

Obituary

Thelma Judy Garland was the fourth child of Fred and Eva (Crowder) Garland. Judy was born in Kenbridge, Virginia on December 29, 1940. Her childhood was spent there in Kenbridge. Judy attended Kenbridge Elementary School. She attended high school at Lunenburg High School in Virginia. While Judy was in the 8th grade she played point guard on the Lunenburg High School girl's varsity basketball team.

Upon moving to New Jersey Judy attended Toms River High School. While at Toms River High School she played Field Hockey and participated in archery.

After living in South Toms River for a while she moved to Newark, NJ with her mother. In Newark Judy worked at St. Barnabas Hospital. While working at the hospital Judy also attended a business school on Broad & Market Streets in downtown Newark. In April of 1962 Judy married George Womack, Jr.

Sometime later Judy returned to South Toms River, where she was employed by the First National Bank of Toms River as a data processor with her sister Agnes G. Willis. She was also employed by O.C.E.A.N., Inc. with the maintenance department. She joined Wells Chapel A.M.E. Church. She later moved her membership to St. Thomas AME church, where her nephew is the pastor. Judy also is a member of the local chapter of the NAACP.

Judy was always a very active fan of her children and grand children. You could always hear her in the stands cheering them on. She was affectionately know as "Judy Babe" by the children. Judy also was a caretaker of many of the neighborhood children. Her apartment was always open to them.

Judy is predeceased by her mother and father, two sisters and two brothers. She is survived by her two sisters Eva Strickland and Margaretta Gerrell (Gene), three children, Gregory, Danita (Hopeton), and Michael (Stacey). Four grandchildren: Erick (Faith), Duey, Malik, Bilal, one great Grandchild (Amyah) and a host of nephews and nieces.
