

Acknowledgements of Appreciation

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Gary C. Booker, 56, of Neptune, NJ, passed away in his home on Monday, June 29, 2020. He was born in Neptune, NJ on August 2, 1963 to George and Shirley Booker. He was a native of Neptune and graduated from Neptune High School in 1981. He went on to study electronics at DeVry Technical Institute.

Gary loved music, in his early years Gary started a band with his friends called “The Creators.” As a self-taught bass player, Gary composed many songs for the band. Two favorites were “Creators on the move” and “Disco-ology.” He also grew to love rap music. Gary wrote numerous rap songs and recorded several tapes that he shared with family. Gary’s love for music inspired him to provide a platform for local artists to showcase their talents on videos he provided for local cable networks.

Gary also had an interest in numerology. He shared this passion with several subscribers through a series of online videos. As an avid reader of various religious texts, Gary read and studied both the Quran and the Holy Bible. He could recite scriptures upon need. His love and understanding of God’s word lead him to author “Bible Symbolism - What it means to your Salvation,” and “The Most Accurate Interpretation of Revelation.” He was a man who truly believed in God’s word.

Gary was a quiet soul who some would consider an introvert, but for those in his immediate circle knew how outgoing he was and his true love for life.

Gary was predeceased by his grandparents; father, George Russell Booker Jr.; and sister, Cheryll A. Booker. He leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Shirley A. Booker; sister, Colette A. Booker (Al); niece, Niarra C. Bell; nephew, Evan M. Bell; and a host of other relatives and friends.
