IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Elizabeth J. Bowers

May 29, 1930 - October 30, 2020

*God saw the road was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put his arm around her
And whispered, "Come with me."
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away
Although we loved her dearly
We couldn't make her stay.
It broke our hearts to lose her
But she didn't go alone
For part of us went with her
The day God took her home.*

Obituary

Elizabeth J. Bowers passed away on Friday, October 30, 2020, at the age of 90, born in Orange County, Hillsboro, North Carolina, on May 29, 1930. Elizabeth was raised by her mother Sarah McBroom Allen and stepfather Bernice Allen along with her sister Cathleen. She went to nursing schools in North Carolina and the New Jersey/New York tri-state area to become a Registered Nurse serving in formerly known Fitkins Hospital, now Hackensack Meridian Jersey Shore University Medical Center. Later in her career, she served and provided exemplary patient care in numerous nursing homes throughout Monmouth County until she later retired.

Elizabeth married James E. Bowers in 1960 and had two children, Michele D. Bowers and Michael E. Bowers. Having married a military man, they traveled extensively and lived all across the United States, even residing in Germany for several years, until settling in Neptune, NJ, sharing over six decades together.

Elizabeth was greatly loved by her family and close friends. She was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. She was known for her delicious southern-style cooking, and nothing was beyond her scope in the kitchen; she was even a marvelous baker, pies were her speciality. Elizabeth loved music, movies, good conversation, dancing, and sharing time with her family. She had a wonderful sense of humor, was a great listener and teacher, but a much better storyteller, leaving behind many beautiful memories, life lessons, wisdom, and knowledge for her loved ones to cherish and carry with them as she transitioned into God's hands.

Elizabeth is survived by her husband James E. Bowers; her children Michele D. Bowers and Michael E. Bowers (Christina); grandchildren Ryan M. Bowers (Ashleigh), Brandon K. Bowers, Dionne I. Bowers-Nicks, Elizabeth M. Bowers; great-grandchildren Ryleigh A. Bowers and Ayden J. Bowers.
