I Am Learning How To Live

I am learning how to live

In a new way

Since that day

You were taken away.

I am learning how to live

With the things left unsaid

Knowing I got to say them

With every tear that I shed.

I am learning how to live

By embracing the pain

Knowing that you live on

Through the memories that remain.

I am learning how to live

Knowing I will never again see your face

And I have peace knowing

You're in a better place.

I am learning how to live

Knowing you're in God's care

It gives me the strength to move on

And makes the pain much easier to bear.

Acknowledgement

Life Story

Catherine Plummer was born on June 7, 1957 to the late John Plummer and Lottie Tobie in Millen, Georgia. Catherine moved to New Jersey when she was in her twenties. Catherine was suddenly called home to glory on December 12, 2020.

Catherine was baptized at Friendship Baptist Church in Asbury Park, NJ under the spiritual leadership of the late Reverend Brown.

Catherine's hobbies included her passion for spending time with the family, reading, cooking and playing cards games. She loved helping out in her community. She was strong, brave and known for getting the job done.

Catherine was predeceased by her Father, John Plummer.

Left to cherish her memory are her mother Lottie Tobie; children Kizzie Plummer, Irene Plummer, Samuel Plummer and Ashley Plummer; Grandchildren, Juwon Sapp, Jimere Sapp, Shaleek Brown, Samiyah Plummer and Ava Jean Baptist; siblings, David Tobie, Barbara Plummer, Rickey Plummer, Walter Tobie and a host of nieces, nephews and many relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
