

~Obituary~

*"Praise the Lord, my soul, and forget not all his benefits."
~ Psalm 102:2*

John Kendall Covington was born June 21, 1958, to the late

John Albert and Barbara Covington in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He transitioned peacefully from this earthly life to heaven's eternal reward on Sunday, March 5, 2023.

Family commonly referred to John as "Kendall". At an early age, he confessed his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and joined the Baily Tabernacle A.M.E. Zion Church. Kendall attended regularly as a youth. He is a believer; he is now resting with our maker.

Kendall was in Upward Bound and attended Stillman College for a year but stopped to explore a different direction. Kendall worked at the University of Alabama on their grounds crew. He loved his job and the people he worked with at the UA. About 10 years ago he was hit by a car crossing the street and suffered tragic injuries. He was never able to work again and as a result was declared disabled.

He was proceeded in death by his parents.

He leaves to morn two children, son Kendall Ysinger, and daughter Kenyatta Fulgham, a brother Earl Jones and wife (Dolores) of Louisville, Kentucky, two sisters Sharon Weaver of Detroit Michigan and Vanessa Warren of Tuscaloosa, an Uncle Martin Cherry and wife (Johnnie), an Aunt Louella Cherry, nieces Alex Gooden, Patrece Cherry, Latisha Cherry, and nephews Sterling Coleman, Malin Jones.

*"Let everything that has breath praise the LORD, Praise ye the Lord."
~ Psalm 150:6*
